1.0 CODE OF CONDUCT POLICY

Kalamunda & Districts Basketball Association (KDBA) has chosen to adopt the Codes of Conduct developed by Basketball Australia.

Basketball is intended to be a recreational activity for enjoyment and health. These Codes of Conduct (CC) intend to give participants some guide to the expectations KDBA has for both our members and visitors to our Association. They are designed to ensure that the high standard of sportsmanship, fairness, honesty and honour of those involved in KDBA domestic competition and to assist everyone to obtain the maximum benefit and enjoyment from their involvement in basketball.

The following document includes the headings for each of the codes of behaviour listed by Coaches, Players, Parents, Spectators, Officials and Administrators'. For more detailed information under each heading, please visit the following link:

- Respect your team's opponents, officials and spectators
- Encourage players to obey the rules and to accept decisions of officials
- Demonstrate appropriate social behaviour by not using foul language or harassing players, coaches or officials
- Respect the rights, dignity and worth of every person
- Keep children in your care under control
- Always respect the use of facilities and equipment provided

2.5 OFFICIALS

- Interpret the rules and regulations fairly and to match the skill level and the needs of the participants
- Compliment both teams on their efforts
- Be consistent, objective and courteous in calling all infractions
- Promote fair play and appropriate sporting behaviour
- Publicly encourage rule changes
- Ensure that both on and off the court your behaviour is consistent with principles of good sportsmanship
- Keep your knowledge current
- Help the education process in the game
- Always present yourself in a way which encourages others to respect you and your role
- Always respect the use of facilities and equipment provided

2.6 ADMINISTRATORS

- Involve others in planning, leadership, evaluation and decision making related to basketball
- Give all people equal opportunities to participate
- Create pathways for people to participate and develop through the sport not just as players but as coaches, referees and administrators
- Ensure that the rules, equipment, length of games and training schedules are modified to suit the age, ability and maturity levels of players
- Provide quality supervision, instruction and a safe environment for all players
- Remember that basketball is fun
- Help coaches and officials highlight appropriate behaviour and skill development and help improve the standards of coaching and officiating
- Assist all participants in basketball to know and understand the rules
- Display a copy of the codes of conduct in the Ray Owen Sports Centre that is easily visible to spectators, parents, coaches, teachers, players and the media and encourage them to follow it. Upload a copy of the codes of conduct to the KDBA website. Provide a written copy if requested
- You set an example. Your behaviour and comments should be positive and supportive
- Make it clear that abusing people in any way is unacceptable and will result in disciplinary action
- Respect the rights and dignity and worth of every person
- Always respect the use of facilities and equipment provided

3.0 Breaches of the Code of Conduct

Suspected breaches of the CC will be referred to the KDBA Competition Manager in the first instance. The Competition Manager will prepare a written report to be passed on to the Competition Co-ordinator/s for further investigation. If the Competition Co-ordinator/s decide there has been a breach of the CC, they will refer it to the KDBA Management Committee.
