VRU & VRL Reciprocal Policy to Recognise Sanctions and Suspensions

The Victorian Rugby Union (VRU) and the Victorian Rugby League (VRL) will recognise and enforce sanctions imposed by each organisation for the following:

- Any player who commits Foul Play on field
- Any person who abuses a match official in any manner
- Any person who commits misconduct off field at any match or event

The VRU and VRL will share all information regarding sanctions imposed by each organisation immediately they come into effect.

Any sanction imposed by one code shall be applicable immediately to the other code.

Clubs/individuals who may be affected will be communicated with in due course.

This arrangement between the VRU and VRL is implemented with immediate effect.
