

Level 1 NOAS Refereeing Course

Details of Requirements to achieve Accreditation

(requirements are in addition to successful completion of course)

Completion of “Introductory Level Officiating General Principles”

- Visit the Water Polo Australia website at the link below. This page will link you directly to the Australian Sports Commission’s online learning portal
 - <http://www.ausport.gov.au/participating/resources/officials/onlineofficial>
- If you are not already registered with this Australian Sports Commission portal, you will need to do so before undertaking the program
- Once registered, choose the “Introduction Level Officiating General Principles” program and complete it
- Provide your certificate of completion when you attend the Level 1 NOAS Refereeing Course

Completion of the “Play By The Rules” program called “Discrimination and Harassment – Umpires”

- Visit the “Play By The Rules” website at the link below
 - <http://www.playbytherules.net.au/interactive-scenarios/free-online-training>
- If you are not already registered with this website, you will need to do so
- Once registered, choose the “Discrimination and Harassment Umpires” course and complete it
- Provide your certificate of completion when you attend the Level 1 NOAS Refereeing Course

Completion of “Officials Code of Ethics”

- Visit the Water Polo Australia website at the link below.
 - <http://waterpoloaustralia.com.au/wp-content/uploads/2015/06/FINAL-Member-Protection-Policy-Water-Polo-Australia-Limited-updated-5-April-2016-ASC-V8-and-Apr-16-update-compliant-policy.pdf>
- Bring a signed copy of pages 30-31 when you attend the Level 1 NOAS Refereeing Course

Completion of “a Victorian Working With Children Check”

- Forms can be obtained and returned to any office of Australia Post
- Unless required for their paid employment, VWPI referees are entitled to complete the form as a “Volunteer”
- Provide a copy of your “Working With Children Check” card to VWPI when received

For further information regarding accreditation, visit the Australian Water Polo website at <http://waterpoloaustralia.com.au/get-involved/referee/>