2019 COACHING ROLES

Newcastle City Australian Football Club is calling for expressions of interest for the following coaching roles for the 2019 season:

- First Division – Men's
- Women's Football – Two sides

Established in 1883, the Newcastle City Blues have a strong history of success both on and off the field, a fantastic 'one-Club' spirit, an experienced committee and strong football programme.

Successful candidates require (or be willing to obtain) minimum Level 1 coaching accreditation and demonstrate experience relevant to the role. All coaches will work within a supportive and progressive team overseen by the Senior Club Coach and Football Manager.

Key responsibilities placed on all coaching staff includes:

1. Embrace and implement the key objectives of the Club;
2. Contribute to the development, planning and implementation of Club coaching strategies and objectives;
3. Foster the club spirit across the spectrum of Men and Women's football, and the Junior and Senior Clubs.

Submissions should include details of relevant experience and qualifications, along with a brief overview of your coaching approach and philosophies.

Submissions can be lodged by email to the Football Manager newcastlecityafc@gmail.com by Wednesday 31 October 2018.

For more information please contact Courtney Knight for a confidential discussion on 0412 484 568.
