JASON MCPHERSON WINS AFTER AN EXCITING PHELAN MEDAL COUNT

UNSW/ES on-baller Jason McPherson took out the Sydney AFL's highest honour when he took out the Phelan Medal by a single vote. The medal count was held at Dockside, Cockle Bay Wharf, Darling Harbour on Monday 17th September. Attended by over 400 people, it was hosted by media personality Russell Barwick.

Only two votes separated the top three placegetters. Penant Hills' Barnaby Howarth, needing three votes in the final round, polled two to finish a single vote behind in second place. North Shore's Simon Wilson repeated his excellent performance in the 2000 Phelan to finish third.

In the Sanders Medal, Campbelltown's Mark Brizzi made up for his disappointment in 2000 with a convincing four vote win over St George's Scott Richmond.

Eight votes in the final three games saw North Shore's James Shore take out the Kealey Medal over teammate Ron Wason, with Andrew Wingkee (UN) and Sean McCann (Cam) equal third.

Penrith's Michael Ross led most of the way in a four vote win in the Hart Medal, with Manly's Andrew Lindsay runner-up.

The Bob McConnell Club Championship was won convincingly by North Shore and the trophy was accepted by club president Peter Jones.

Leading Goalkicking Awards were presented to:

SNOW MEDAL TIE BETWEEN CIANCI AND BURNETT

The Snow Medal Count for 2001 was held as part of the Phelan Medal presentation evening for the first time. The result was the only tie for the night, with Macquarie Uni spearhead Phil Cianci and Wollongong skipper Trevor Burnett, sharing the award—Grant Campbell finishing two votes behind.

Both Burnett and Cianci polled heavily in the first half of the season, but eased off towards the end, allowing Campbell and Salem Kassem a late run to the line.
