Handy advice for first home buyers

Buying a home is an important decision and purchasing your first home, even more so. It can be a tricky and somewhat daunting process which is why it is essential to do your homework, have a plan and budget, and seek expert advice before jumping in.

Here are some quick tips to help avoid some of the common traps when taking your first step onto the property ladder:

- Be clear on what you can afford to spend to avoid looking at properties that are out of your price range.
- Work of the best home loan for you and check the ongoing repayments taking into consideration interest rate increases over time.
- Get pre-approval for your loan so you know exactly what properties you can afford to be looking at.
- Understand all your costs such as stamp duty, pest and building inspections, insurance and legal fees.

KICKIN' IT WITH KRISTEN

WELCOME TO SEASON 2017

By KRISTEN ALEBAKIS

AFTER 203 days, WRFL footy is back.

A lot has changed since that September day last year when Deer Park celebrated their fourth consecutive premiership. A feat no other club in the history of this competition has achieved before.

It was a momentous day for Deer Park, one they will never forget.

But this year is a new year and the Lions will again be the hunted, a position they undoubtedly enjoy holding.

Hoppers Crossing, Altona and the rest will be hot on their heels in 2017.

Trying to tip a ladder for the Division 1 competition proved to be a difficult task. It looks to be quite an even competition this season, which will no doubt provide footy fans with a thrilling and entertaining season.

In other exciting news, the WRFL is launching a standalone Girls competition this year.

The overwhelming response from Melbourne's west to the AFL Women's competition and Female Football overall has been incredible.

This year there will be an increase in 17 teams across the Under-12, 15 and 18 competitions, with more than 300 new players registering to play our great game.

If you are interested in playing footy this season and want to find your local club visit the WRFL website.

See you at the footy.

New WRFL Umpires Sponsor in 2017

The WRFL has secured a new WRFL Umpires Sponsor, RAMS Home Loan Centre - Western Division which, amongst other things, has enabled the funding of new uniforms for all WRFL umpires.

RAMS Home Loan Centre - Western Division who already partner the league, increased their support to sponsor the leagues umpires.

The RAMS logo will be on the front and back of the uniform and the REACH Foundation's logo will also appear on the front. Many of you would have heard of the Reach Foundation which Jimmy Stynes founded some years ago, it focuses on assisting young people cope better with today's societal problems and environment, its core benefit is that it uses young trainers who relate well to the target audience

Sponsors in 2017

More than ever the task of maintaining existing, and securing new sponsors for the league and clubs is increasingly difficult. The league has been lucky enough to maintain the majority of its 2016 partner arrangements as well as securing increased investment from a number of these and sourcing investment from new sponsors in 2017.

Increase in investment from existing sponsors:

RAMS Home Loan Centre Western Region ..taken up WRFL Umpires sponsorship

TIV

Western Bulldogs Football Club

SEDA ..taken on the Naming Rights Partner of the WRFL Under 17 competition

New Sponsors

Adcell Group

Raw Form Seamless Compression Shorts

Sealane Wholesalers

Starsub

The league thanks all its existing partners the brands of which you will see throughout this record and seek those reading this article to support these partners. The league understand that each club has their own sponsors and how important it is for club communities to support these partners.

In the same way it is important that the leagues sponsors are supported as all revenue goes towards reducing the cost of club's league registration fees.

One of the league's goals is to raise sufficient funds through sponsorships to eventually do away with the need for clubs to pay any registration fees at all.

NEW LOOK UMPIRES FOR 2017

By GRAEME HODGART

THE start of a new WRFL season is upon us. Last season now seems to be a distant memory with all eyes focused firmly on the task ahead. That is, of course, Round One.

A new season brings with it a mixture of the old and the new. Many things are the same, but there are also quite a few changes in the wind.

Just three of the more obvious are Caroline Springs competing in Division 1 Seniors for the first time and Glen Orden not able to field any senior men's teams. It's always a shame when this happens. Hopefully the establishment of a Glen Orden women's team, their various junior sides and that hard core group of passionate supporters can help the club find its way through this rough patch. Thirdly, the big push Australia wide is the development of the female teams and this is set to become just a normal and expected part of all clubs both old and new.

In the umpiring department there are also changes. The biggest and most obvious change will be with their uniform, which is thanks to the new WRFL Umpires sponsor, RAMS Home Loan Centre Western Region.

RAMS have incorporated the REACH Foundation in their branding, this is to recognise the important work REACH will be undertaking with the youth of the west.

Goodbye to the traditional white with a dash or two of blue and red, and welcome in the AFL style green and grey.

It will take a little while for everyone to get used to it. No more yelling out obscenities to the man in white. We have definitely moved on from that.

The first month of the season may be a transitional period with some umpires still in the white with others proudly donning the new gear.

The same faces in the WRFL umpiring circle generally remain constant. The 'old brigade' of Henry McFerran, Terry O'Donnell, Paul Battaglia, Mark Westgarth, John Sutton, Rene van Kuyk, Terry McGarity, Evan Eliopoulos and Andrew Fregonese will all at some time emerge from the rooms to take charge of games and be involved again.

Last year the field umpiring stocks were overflowing with many young new faces but rumour has it that some 'older hands' in Greg Denison, Adrian O'Donnell and Brett Ritchie will all be making comebacks in the WRFL.

Good luck to each and every player, club official and umpire, field, boundary and goal, as they each begin a new season. Hopefully this year will be even bigger and better than 2016.

NEW PARTNERSHIP WITH RAWFORM COMPRESSION

THE Western Region Football League is pleased to announce a new partnership with RAWFORM Seamless Compression for the 2017 season.

During training, game day and recovery, players will feel the benefits of RAWFORM Seamless Compression, with overall exceptional support and pressure focused on hips, thighs, groin and rear with improved endurance and recovery.

WRFL Marketing Consultant Peter Harley said he is excited by the partnership which will allow players to purchase compression shorts direct through RAWFORM at a competitive price.

“We think this particular arrangement will work well with this type of garment as it enables individual players and, in the case of juniors, their parents, to order compression shorts online, at a competitive price and have them delivered directly to the players’ home,” he said.

RAWFORM General Manager Simon Hosking said RAWFORM shorts were reliable compression shorts.

“The shorts are the realisation of sports performance apparel we wished existed in the market,” he said.

“We just wanted compression shorts that did what they said they were going to do. Our sales pitch is simply just get people to try the shorts. We’ve tested the shorts from AFL to grassroots level and the feedback is always that they are the best compression shorts they have worn.”

The deal includes discounted products to WRFL players, their families and friends.

“We are passionate about local football, developing future AFL stars and looking after seasoned player’s bodies” Hosking said.

2017 WRFL HEARTLAND AWARD

C O N G R A T U L A T I O N S

In its fifth season this year, the WRFL is pleased to announce the continuation of the WRFL-Western Bulldogs Heartland Award in 2017.

Each week throughout the home and away season, the Junior Heartland Award will be presented by the coach from the home team to one player from the opposition side, who they believe embodies the true essence of the game - that being: fair play, fun, involvement, and respect for both opposition and umpires.

This season we would also like to announce Marcus Bontempelli as the Heartland Ambassador.

Don't forget to register your unique code at the bottom of your certificate on the Western Bulldogs website to go into the draw to win The Ultimate Football experience at Whitten Oval.

The Heartland Award will kick off on Sunday, April 9 for Round 1 of the junior fixture.
